Intensive Campaigning Brings
Ballot Markers by Doves
Voting for Favorites.

After one of the most spirited election campaigns ever staged on the campus, Homer Long was elected president of the student body for next year, and Fred Davis vice president.

The opposing candidates were John Baker, Clyde Bowen, and John Tilton for the presidency, and Joyce Heck and Beverly Johnson for the office of vice president.

First Election Results in Tie
This election aroused more interest and school spirit among students than had been felt this year. The first election, held Tuesday, April 15, resulted in a tie for presidency by Homer Long and John Tilton, a fact making it necessary to reopen the polls, Monday, April 19.

Campaigning for the candidates was enthusiastic during the few days between nomination and election. Clever posters were hung in every conceivable place, and many of the attractive "Pinna Shave" signs along the walks to the huge banner hung between the Towers. Pop bands marched through the campus and rallies were held. And last, but by no means least, was the coffee break served the College students by the friends of John Tilton and Joyce Heck on the morning of the first election.

Industrial Arts Major
Homer Long, the new president, is a junior from Graham. His major is industrial arts, and he has a double minor of mathematics and industrial arts. "Hank" is a member of the Barkatze, the "M" Club, and the Quad Council. He served the army for three and one-half years.

Fred Davis, the new vice president, is a junior from St. Joseph. He has as his major, business administration, and a minor of the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, and served as a tail gunner on the 8th Air Force during the war.

At a senate meeting the second day in May, the new president and vice president will take office.

Homecoming Committee
Being Shaped for Program

Dr. John Harr, chairman of the Homecoming committee for the 1948 Homecoming, says that the success of the 1948 venture can be achieved only by the type of enthusiasm which was displayed in 1947.

The composite faculty-student committee worked diligently and successfully to make the 1947 Homecoming the best for many years. A variety of events was presented to the returning alumni to make their brief return to Maryville a memorable one. Who can forget the variety show, the float parade, the dance, the get-togethers over coffee after the grizzly afternoon at the football game?

At the present time, organizations are selecting their man or woman to represent them on the over all committee. A student chairman will be in charge of this group, under the direction of the faculty planning board.

November 5 and 6 has been designated as the two days for Homecoming for 1948.

"The purpose of the meeting is to provide an opportunity for teacher college people of these four states to become acquainted with the organization and administration of various colleges and to talk over common problems," President Jones said.

Those who participated in the meeting from Maryville were Dr. C. E. Cline, Miss Wincle Ann Carr, Mrs. Ramona Canton, Miss Barbara B. Smith, Dr. Clifford Bishop, Dr. W. L. Wilson, Everett W. Brown, and Dean M. C. Cunningham.

Interviewing prospective teachers, J. W. Green, superintendent at Burlington, Iowa, was at the College, April 19.

Eight Coeds Give Dance Demonstration

Members of College Dance Group Present Program Before Convention.

Eight members of the Dance club composed a demonstration group for a lecture given by Dr. Juana de Lavan, dance director at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, at the National Convention of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, held in Kansas City, April 19 to 22.

The dances were all learned after the participants arrived in Kansas City, and the demonstration was given on Thursday morning in the Music Hall. All dances were done to records, which was a new experience for the girls.

Costumes worn by the dancers were furnished by the College Dance club. They consisted of red leotards and gold skirts and blue leotards and gold skirts.

The dances which were given showed the development of the dance.

The first one presented showed the free, flowing movement of the Isadora Duncan period. A second dance showed the grace of natural movement. Another dance given had as its theme the folk element as portrayed in a Spanish dance. The fourth dance showed the latest trends—the dramatic emphasis of the dance, where a conglomeration of styles are merged into something new.

This year, her position on the Tower staff was that of copy editor. She was in charge of all the organizational writeups.

Four quarters of staff work on the Northwest Missourian will offer background training for the position she is to hold next year.

Archbishop Speaks
Before Campus Group

Primate of Jacobite Rite, Catholic Church, India, Is Visitor.

Archbishop Mar Ivanios, O. I. C., Primate of the Jacobite Rite of the Catholic Church of India, Malabar, India, was a visitor at the College on Friday, April 16. The Archbishop is in this country studying the American educational system. He was a guest of Conception Abbey.

Dressed in the black costume of his office, the Archbishop addressed the College students who gathered in the auditorium for an impromptu assembly. In part the Archbishop said:

"Maybe you would like to know something about my country. It is about two-thirds the size of the United States but has three times the population. My people do not believe in birth control. We have many resources and have not the slightest fear of starvation.

"Our philosophy and culture is against bloodshed. Our philosophy states one should not kill ants, mosquitoes or cobras. We say you cannot give life so should not take life.

"We do not believe in communism. We believe in God, the Christian principles and prayer. In my country politics and economics are secondary; religion rules the people and the society."

The Archbishop spoke of Gandhi. He said, "Gandhi believed that everybody should be allowed to practice his own religion. He held prayer meetings in the evenings at which time scriptures and quotations were read from each and all religions. My estimate of the man is that he prepared the way for Christianity in my country."

College Is Chosen As Site for Survey

North Central Association Chooses 21 in Conducting Teacher Education Plan.

The Northwest Missouri State Teachers College has been selected as one of 21 colleges in the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools to be included in a study of teacher education. Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College, announced today.

In March, when the North Central Association approved a subcommittee's plan to make a cooperative study on instruction in teacher education, approximately 100 teachers colleges in the territory applied for inclusion in the study. It was decided, however, to limit the number to not more than 25. Thus far only 21 institutions have been chosen.

The year's study, which will begin in September, will be, on this campus, under the direction of Dr. M. C. Cunningham, dean of the College faculty, according to President Jones.

From August 2 to 27, Dr. Cunningham will be at the University of Minnesota where he will attend a workshop to be held for all liaison officers directing the study of teacher education programs on the selected campuses.

Assembly Address Is Given by Dr. Smiley

Role Medical People Are Playing in Developing Services Is Explained.

Dr. Franklin Dean Smiley, a representative of the American Medical Association, outlined four points for improvement in the present public health system in the assembly, April 21. It was Dr. Smiley's task to explain the role that medical people are playing toward developing and extending public health services to the total population.

"For the first time since the war, we are in the position to carry on an offensive fight against disease. Previously, we have had our hands full with building up a defense against attacks," confided Dr. Smiley.

Praises Scientists
The speaker praised the scientists of the current period. He credited them with discoveries of such wonder drugs and life preservers as sulfa and streptomycin. He hinted that it was these and similar discoveries which led the American people to the position where they may demand physical fitness.

"It is inexcusable that Americans can not have the best of medical care," emphatically declared the doctor. "There is no reason why they should not; however, I believe the real problem is the gap between the distributor and consumer."

Cancer Causes Many Deaths
He proved his point by the use of vital statistics. He announced that science knows that cancer can be cured if it is discovered early; yet, 3,000 cases die each year. He also said that although the entire story of tuberculosis is clear, the disease causes many deaths among youths than any other ailment.

"We must take strides if we are to put new things to work," he advised. He outlined a plan along this principle which included first of all, a Public Health Clinic, which would support scientific laboratory services, health education, maternity care, vital statistics, and a sanitary officer at the cost of $1.50 per person.

"We need it!" he emphasized. His second point for improvement was distributing the costs of medical care through the Blue Cross and Blue Shield. The establishment of hospitals according to a plan described his third step. Lastly, he advised promoting health and physical fitness through the community.

Give all these things to your community when you go out into the world, Dr. Smiley pleaded.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will obey the laws and do our best to make it a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

MAKE YOUR DECISION EARLY

At the age of seventeen and possibly eighteen, men and women enter the College as freshmen. This is a teacher's training institution. Most of them know that.

For three or three and one-half years they take the prescribed courses. In their senior year they daily make their trips to Horace Mann laboratory for practice teaching. Previous to this they have met the education requirements necessary for practice teachers. Generally they teach in their major field.

After a period of observation they emerge as full fledged teachers. They are on their own, with occasional aids from their supervising instructor. They find that teaching can be enjoyable if they apply themselves. The variety of experiences met proves also to be a factor that enhances their desire to continue in the profession that they have devoted, or rather given, four years of their lives.

To any question an answer is naturally desired. An answer necessitates an unearthing of the reason behind success or failure.

In this case the unearthing discloses a combination of student indecision and lack of pressure. People are born to be taught. Most, a great majority, of members of our civilization will not seek on their own their future life. They have to be prodded, guided, constantly watched to enable them to find their channel in life. The early guidance comes from home. The teacher plays the next part. In the vicious circle we then see ourselves doing not our best to enable our own children to seek their future.

If we are going to teach, that decision should be made early in our college life. With the return to normalcy in teacher training institutions and fully trained personnel in our schools throughout the nation a great step will be made. Then the administrations will be able to devote more of their time to better preparation of potential teachers. Teacher shortage pressure and the carrying need for more men and women in the field will not be a burden of theirs. Already steps are well on the way to increase the experiences of trainees, to provide better internships for them, and to promote in their minds a sounder appreciation of their profession.

However, regardless of the guidance received from outside, you cannot sit back complacently and wait for someone to lead you to Podunk High and a classroom.

Make your decision early either to or not to teach.

Don't wait until you find that you have a contract before you, which you realize you have been waiting four years to sign but didn't know it.

And then after you have made your decision, carry your head high. If you are a doctor you are proud, if a lawyer you are proud, if a banker you are proud.

Why not be proud to be a teacher?

CONGRATULATIONS

Student elections are finished and out of the way for another year. Best wishes for success go out to the winners in the recent contests for president and vice president of next year's student body. They are qualified people and will undoubtedly live up to the honor bestowed upon them.

Congratulations, however, should go not only to the winners but to the losers and to the whole student body. The week of campaigning that was enjoyed by all was one of real enthusiasm. School spirit seemed stronger than ever and the trend toward participation by all students was extremely evident.

They're Talking About...

... the recent campus political campaigns and the originality shown by candidates—John Tilton donning a chef's hat to become "Waffle King"—Burma-Shave advertising being set back ten years by the Baker-Johnson slogans—the various combinations formed by proponents of the Davis combination.

... Pat Zuchowski, famed football, basketball and track star, seen about, after weeks of seclusion, with tiny Pat Straight—(The preceding item is a paid advertisement, and is not represented as having any news value!)

... Borg (Willie the Penguin) Johnson and his lucky hollering of Number Three green on those approach shots at the Country Club. ... Golf match of the year—Jones-Lespey vs. Johnson—McIntyre in the Scotch tournament.

... the Sig Tau Rose Queen, crowned by faculty members at the Tau formal Saturday night, and the white roses worked into their decoration scheme. ... George Silvers, New Jersey's gift to the College, arguing vainly in class that "Crime Does Pay" with Miss Franken. ... the Falcons winning several of their opening games in football league play, and yours truly having his share in the club cut an eighth. ... the Sig Tau Knights going into permanent seclusion after the appearance of only four (4) players for their opener. ...

... Jim Malson almost receiving a new coat of maroon paint on one side of his antiquated horseless carriage near the oasis recently. ... Quad boys donning best manners, worst clothes, for dorm girls one night last week as the femmes transferred their gourmanderie (that's a joke, daughter!) to the Quad dining hall. ... Bunk Null seeking a corner to rent, but finally settling for a vacant fire escape. ... the lobster pink complexion seen about the dorm as the girls vie for that newest of new looks, the "summer shade". ... the Phi majors in Kansas City last week for the convention, and how dull things seemed around here without them—(Maybe that's why this column is so short and bitter this week???)

Teacher Internship Is Subject of Study

Dr. Clifford L. Bishop Writes Article for Education Magazine.

"The Purposes of Teacher Internship" is the subject of an article by Dr. Clifford L. Bishop in a recent issue of Education Administration and Supervision. The study is based on Dr. Bishop's dissertation, "Participation of Colleges and Universities in Programs of Internship—Teaching."

Significant data concerning purposes of teacher internship were obtained from a survey of specialists in teacher education, a group of school supervisors, and representatives of fifty-nine cooperating colleges and universities. Carefully evaluating the data from these three groups, Dr. Bishop has the following to say: Theoretical Purposes of Program

The theoretical purposes of a program of internship for teachers as outlined by the combined groups composed of the members of the jury specialists in teacher education and the group of school supervisors according to their mean ratings are as follows:

1. To afford the prospective teacher a professional experience that could not be obtained otherwise.
2. To secure integration of theory and practice in the professional education of teachers.
3. To acquire an understanding of children.
4. To insure that the beginning teacher receives his first year's experience in a school situation conducive to professional growth.
5. To provide a scheme of teacher induction in which there is adequate and competent supervision at the time of induction.
6. To provide a better means whereby the intern may learn techniques of conducting a class by experiencing the best methods.
7. To develop a great confidence in the art of classroom management.
8. To help young teachers correct many errors in teaching before they become habits.
9. To test the young teacher's ability to integrate theory and practice when confronted by a real-life situation.
10. To develop in the intern a greater ability to apply a sound philosophy of education.
11. To provide a try-out period in which it can be determined whether the beginning teacher possesses the qualifications required of a good teacher.
12. To meet the needs for more thorough and extended work in supervised teaching otherwise impossible.
13. To provide a rapid development in use and understanding of good methods of teaching.
14. To permit a gradual induction and orientation into the work of teaching.
15. To broaden the outlook and sharpen the ideas of prospective teachers.
16. To meet the need for more thorough and extended work in supervised teaching otherwise impossible.

Purposes of Existing Programs
The most important purposes of existing programs of internship as given by the representatives of the fifty-nine cooperating colleges and universities are as follows:

1. To assist prospective teachers in gaining independence and ability as teachers in a natural and normal school situation under competent supervision.
2. To provide a gradual induction into teaching through the practical development of skills, understandings, and processes essential to success in teaching.
3. To give the prospective teacher a concept of the school functioning as an agent of society in its particular community setting and to give the prospective teacher a feeling that he is a functioning citizen thereof.
4. To provide the intern an opportunity to study, take part in and get the feeling of all activities and phases of teaching.
5. To integrate all preceding work in theory, subject-matter, and participation with actual practice.
6. To acquaint prospective teachers with children and how they develop physically, socially, emotionally and intellectually.
7. Emotionally, then, should provide for the professional development of the young teacher through a close integration of theory and practice. It should help provide a better understanding of children as well as better means of confidently helping them toward their goals of learning and life. It should supply the need for better induction of the teacher into teaching while under careful supervision. The young teacher should, through internship, develop a greater ability to apply a sound philosophy of education which would broaden the outlook and sharpen the ideas of the prospective teacher. These are the main purposes of internship—purposes that can not be carried out so well by any other means of directed teaching according to the views expressed by the respondents in this investigation.

The first part of this week Dr. J. C. Strong was in Chicago, Ill., at a meeting of the National American Chemical Society.

The Stroller

First Aid classes almost had two cases of shock to treat when W. T. Garrett of the biology department told Stroller what one of the fair sex wrote on a mid-term exam. We quote, "Osculation causes protrusion of the teeth." Nuff sed!

Bill Schettler suggests that all stationery companies flavor the stickum on envelopes with orange, strawberry, cherry, raspberry, lemon and lime. Stroller can just see all the College students flocking to buy envelopes instead of gumdrops!

Dr. Frank Grube is in love again—with his new house. Comparing the house with a flickle girl, he says that when the house is finished he won't have to wait for it or worry about it.

Least quoted quotations of the week (or year for that matter): "Neither sleet, nor hail, nor dark of night will stay the mailman from his appointed task" and another one, older, if possible, "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to what the girls have been thinking about all winter."

Latest engagement on the campus is that of Dorothy Wilhoit and Gen Paul Porter, newcomer to the College. Helen Sutton and "Hank" Long have added their names to the list of "Pinned People."

Orchid of the week goes to Clyde Bowen who was seen in Chuck Rupe's room at the Quad before the election working on a campaign poster—for "Hank" Long. Stroller offers only thunder and dandruff to the scallwags that threw tomatoes during the campaign parade downtown.

$64 question today is still "Who put up the 'Tilton for President' sign on the tower?" Anyone knowing the whereabouts of the person or persons responsible for this, please get in touch with the Stroller for appropriate reward. Boy Scouts not included!

WANTED: Someone to tell the Stroller the password necessary to get through the crowded lobby of Residence Hall at about 10:15 every evening. Popular spot.

It is considered unusual when a guy takes two girls to the show in one evening, but when Paul Gates steps out with Anais Vernaz, Mary Frances Robinson, Carolyn Steel, and Doris Jean Hamilton that is news.

Those snazzy looking ties with D. S. E. hand painted on them—seen around the campus recently—are favors from the Delta Sig party. The Delta Sigs believe that there is more than one way to "tie up" a guy.

Stroller was mighty discouraged Tuesday when a cute co-ed walked up to him and said, "It may be Leap Year, but you're safe!" There's a word for that sort of thing but they won't let it be printed.

The "Bitter Bird" says that a process for making wool out of milk has been developed. Must make the cows feel sort of sheepish.

From the "Mis-a-sip" comes the following little deal.

To the coed's question of "Where is Elsie?" the housemother answered, "I don't know; she went to the library."

Go ahead, laugh!
Stroller is indebted to "Showme" for the following gem.

"What did your son learn at college?" asked the neighbor.

The proud parent replied: "Well, he hadn't been home a week before he showed me how to open bottles with a half dollar."

Stroller certainly got fooled. Thought he had that idea patented!

How?

Boy Scouts soared high in their ambitions to do a good deed during the recent student body elections.

While campaign slogans sprouted up in every possible corner of the campus, members of Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity were seeking more unusual places to display their "Tilton for President" banners.

Then high in the sky appeared one of the most talked about signs—a Tilton banner stretched between two of the towers of the Administration buildings.
At last the Boy Scouts had reached a new height in campaign service.

The facts about the Marine Corps Civilian College Graduate Program are as follows:

1. Any male citizen of the United States, who is more than twenty (20) and less than twenty-five (25) years of age on July first and who is a graduate of an accredited college or university, may make application for appointment to commissioned rank as a Second Lieutenant in the regular Marine Corps.

2. Both married and single applicants are equally eligible.

9. A prospective applicant may submit a request between 90 and 120 days prior to his graduation for application forms in order that they may be completed by him and returned to Marine Corps Headquarters for processing and thereby avoid any delay which would result if the applicant waited until graduation to submit his application. Such requests for application forms and any requests for additional information may be addressed to the Commandant of the Marine Corps, Washington 25, D. C.

Needs Watching?

"Everything happens to me!" was Helen Fisher's comment after she spent ten minutes going through the veterans' files in the Bookstore trying to find Jerry Rounder's name—only to discover that the young man at the counter wanted a Cherry Rounder candy bar.

Helen might well have repeated the statement last Friday night. She went to the Sigma Sigma banquet at the Maryville Country Club, and out of all those there, can you guess whose chair collapsed? Yes, you're right!

Ernst Von Black, who appeared on the campus last spring to conduct swimming tests to determine applicant's fitness for instructors' certificates, will again be at the College. The date this year is May 10. All persons possessing life saving certificates are eligible to take the tests.

Marine Captain Makes Final Visit to Campus

U. S. Marine Captain Richard F. Dyer made his final visit to the College yesterday. He talked to students interested in enrolling in the Marine Corps Platoon Leader's class. Captain Dyer visited the campus in the interest of Marine Officer Procurement.

On his latest trip Captain Dyer was accompanied by a Navy medical officer who conducted physical examinations in the College infirmary between the hours of 9 a. m. and 2 p. m. Mrs. Anna Wormsley, College nurse, aided the doctor.

Complete information on the program under which freshmen, sophomores, and juniors may earn commissions in the Marine Corps Reserve by taking their military training during the summer vacation months was given by the Captain.

Two College Men Sing at Program

Richard Huff and Justyn Graham provided entertainment between acts of the Bellevue High School senior play on Tuesday night, April 20. Both Richard and Justyn sang solos. They sang "When Love Is Kind," and "Without A Song," respectively.

Maryville Is Host to M. I. A. A. Outdoor Track, Tennis and Golf

Rolla and Cape Are Co-Favorites to Win

Indians Will Defend Title

Maryville State Teachers College Bears are the hosts to the annual M. I. A. A. outdoor track and field meet for this year. Date of the meet is May 15, with the conference golf and tennis play scheduled for May 14, making the campus a two-day scene for the six competing schools.

Athletic Director E. A. Davis has announced the times for the various events to take place. They are listed at the end of this article, along with the records in the track and field events.

Cape Girardeau and Rolla are the favorites to cop the honors in the May 15 setting. The Springfield Bears are close behind, and our own Bearcats show every indication of making the meet a close battle. Kirksville has potent men in the pole vault, high jump, hurdles, and distances to make them stern competition. Warrensburg's Mules have not indicated any considerable strength, although they have one outstanding performer in Warren Steigemeier.

Reid Is Back for Cape

Expected to carry the load for the defending Cape Indians are Ralph Corse, sensational miler and half-miler who recently set a new record of 4:33.9 in the mile, Reid, conference 220 and 440 yard dash champion, whose tremendous finish as anchor man on Cape's mile relay squad last year is still the talk of locker rooms throughout the conference, Gunter, a fine quarter miler, Richard Corse, another quarter miler, and Bill Bangert, shot put and discus man. Cape has lost many of their first place winning men, such as Radcliffe, Upton, and Barr, but will be a definite threat with the smooth running Ralph Corse and the scampering Reid.

Kirksville State Teachers, recently defeated in a dual meet by the Bearcats, will have DeLaporte, distance man, Erzen and Walker and possibly Sparks in the high jump, Rice in the broad jump, Sparks in the pole vault along with Shelton, Horton in the hurdles and dashes, Thrasher in the discus, and Dowell in the quarter.

Rolla has Balanced Team Rolla, co-favorites with Cape, will bring a balanced team to the meet. They are returning into competition against the other conference schools after their indoor victory at Columbia in March, when they nosed out the Indians and Springfield. They are sparked by miler Tothill, Book, shot put, Ward and Cobrin, hurdles; Ward and Kirk, broad jumpers; Smith, two miler; and Turner, half-miler.

High jumper Holt, quarter miler Bays, broad jumper Gross, two miler Schatz, half miler Rea, and pole vaulter Anderson compose the nucleus of Springfield's entry. This group, aided by others, is expected to furnish the sternest competition to Rolla and Cape.

Bearcats Have Dash Men Although finishing in fifth place in the indoor, the Maryville Bearcats loom as threats in the outdoor meet because of their sparkling dash men and quarter milers, plus the weightman Alvin Wormsley's sure points in those events. Wormsley, Neil, indoor 60 yard sprint champ, is expected to carry off top honors in the 100 and 220 yard events. He will be pressed by Pat Zuchowski, who is rapidly gaining the endurance necessary for the longer dash. Zuchowski has been one tenth of a second behind the fleet Neil all season, and they might possibly finish one-two if everything is favorable. As previously mentioned, Wormsley is expected to grab top honors in both the shot put and discus. He hit 45 feet plus his last meet, and with a little more work on his discus will be throwing the platter out of sight. Norman James and Paul Waters should cause Reid of Cape no little trouble in the quarter. Especially threatening is the former, who has cut his time down to 53 seconds without anyone pressing him. He is sure to be pressed in the outdoor meet, possibly enough to set a new conference record. Other men who should garner some points for the 'Cats are Mark Christine in the distances, Bob Conn in the half mile, Paul Gates and Zuchowski in the broad jump, Dick Schoneman in the pole vault, John Daly in the weights, and possibly Walt Stanton and Gates in the low hurdles. The relay squads are poised at this time, eager to defend their record of not having lost a heat in any race all season.

The whole program promises to be a spectacle to be remembered. Records are sure to fall, especially in the mile and half mile.

'M' Club Members Plan Final Picnic Together

Members of the 'M' Club are busily engaged in a variety of activities in preparation for the high school track and field meet being held on the campus this Saturday. Each member has a task to perform at the meet to help Athletic Director E. A. Davis and other responsible persons successfully handle the affair.

Each spring the club has a 'members only' picnic on the banks of some nearby river. The boys fry fish that have been caught the previous night by Mr. Davis and assistants, talk over times together on the athletic fields or courts, and in general have one last time together as a unit. Many of this year's membership will be lost by graduation, so the event this spring promises to bring out more of the old memories than ever before. President Bill Gamble has appointed a committee to take charge of the arrangements.

Last spring and summer's championship intramural softball team, although missing many of its stars because of track participation, is progressing well in competition thus far in the young season. Vernon Weidmaier and John Wohlford handle the pitching chores, while Larry Zirbel, Pop Hicks, and others lend a mean hand with the old war club. Other recent highlights of the intramural play were victories by Stanley Totoralis and Maury Geist in the finals of badminton doubles, the former's winning of the 'singles' play, and the victory of the volleyball team in the tournament in that activity.

Program chairman Bruce Peters is working with his aids on the program for the outdoor track meet to be held May 14-15 on the College athletic field. The club is producing a program for the high school meet to be held Saturday, minus any advertising.

Random Shots

Norman James has won the quarter mile in each of the last three meets and has cut his time each race. James is a strong competitor and a diligent worker and this seems to be paying off for him.

Coach Milner and his track theory class have whipped the cinder oval into the best shape it has been in years. Sawdust has been added to the jumping pits and the shot and discus rings have been leveled off. Compared with many college tracks, ours is one of the best when it is taken care of but it does take much hard work to get it ready for a meet.

Al Wormsley got off one of his best throws in the shot event as he fired the big iron ball 45 feet and 7 inches. Later in the day, Al was defeated in his favorite event, the discus, for the first time this year.

Spring football has brought out many rose spots, groans, and moans, but everyone seems to be rounding into good shape. An inter-squad game is planned for about the first of May and should really be a battle worth watching.

Don Neil and Pat Zuchowski stood out in the sprints in the dual meet against Kirksville as they finished one, two, respectively, in both the 100 and 220. These two have been running close together in all meets this year with Neil holding a slight advantage.

College athletes seem to be slowly rounding into pre-war stride, as far as track and field are concerned. Last week two new unofficial records were seen at the Kansas relays. The marks made here in the Kirksville dual meet were somewhat more of the type that we all say, "They used to make." Perhaps the war veterans are coming around at last, along with the stiff competition of the younger athletes.

The intramural softball race looks like a hot race this year. The defending champions, the "M" club team won their first two games, 16-0 and 15-0, but they will have their hands full if they intend to win the crown again.

Dick Schoneman, freshman high jumper, surprised all hands last Wednesday against Kirksville when he leaped 6' even to cop that event. Schoneman spent his high school days at Tarkio and was coached by Harry "Deacon" Darr, former all-around Bearcat athlete and graduate of the College in 1941.

Negro athletes, who are barred from competing against whites in this state, seem to dominate track and field again this year. Last week, two Negroes set new unofficial world records in the shot and high hurdles. Harrison Dillard, the man who set the high hurdle record, won his 54th consecutive race last week! Official world marks in the 100, 220 yard dash and broad jump are held by Jesse Owens.

Graduating senior football lettermen can be seen almost every night watching spring practice from the sidelines, some yearning to be back out there, but most of them asking themselves, "Why did we ever do that?"

Bearcat Rally Falls Short at Triangular

Peru Again Emerges Close Veto in Meet Starring Local Relay Squads.

Just one point separated the Maryville Bearcats from the Peru Teachers in a triangular meet at Peru, Nebraska, recently. However, the 'Cats fell down in the distance events and the host school walked off the cinder paths with 69 1/2 points to Maryville's 68 1/2 and Tarkio's 34. Big Alvin Wormsley of the local thin clads was high point man with 12 clouters. It was the second triangular meet between the schools. Peru won the first meet also.

First place points in the discus, shot put, and pole vault by Wormsley and Dick Appleman plus a second and third in the high jump and third and fourth in both the Javelin and broad jump gave the Bearcats a big early lead, but the Peru outfit whittled this down and went ahead by winning the first three places in the half mile, mile, and two mile for thirty points. Norman James' sparkling victory in the quarter mile plus a third by Paul Waters in that event brought the score closer, and a second, third and fourth in the 100 yard dash and a first and second in the 220 dash put them temporarily ahead. Donnie Neil won this latter sprint, and Pat Zuchowski placed second.

With the two relays and the 220 yard hurdles the last events on the program, the Bearcats needed to gain six points to tie. They narrowly missed when Paul Gates placed second in the hurdles, but a fourth place tie in that event assured Peru the first place providing they finished no worse than second in both of the latter events. They did, even though the Tarkio relay squads gave them a battle. A strong finish by James in the mile relay finished the race. The smooth striding star overcame a five yard lead of the Peru anchor man to coast in to victory in easy style.

Summary of the meet follows:

Javelin: Won by Stanek, Tarkio; second, Blocker, Peru; third, Buthers, Maryville; fourth, Gates, Maryville. Distance, 169 feet, 10 inches.

Mile Run: Won by Lane, Peru; second, Yokum, Peru; third, Frazee, Tarkio; fourth, Christine, Maryville. Time, 4 minutes 53.3 seconds.

Ottumwa Sends Shark Club

Ottumwa, Iowa, is sending its Shark club which will present a swimming demonstration at the pool at 3 o'clock. The sponsor of this organization is Miss Vida Bernau, who is a graduate of the College. After the girls have finished another assembly will be held and awards will be given.

Health Department

With the exception of 150 students the people on the College campus took advantage of the x-ray unit which was in the Horace Mann building April 8-9. These x-rays will be read by Dr. Florence McGinness of Kansas City, a nationally known specialist, and will then be sent back to the College. Letters will be sent to the students regarding the outcome of the x-ray. It will be approximately two or three weeks after the pictures are taken before letters will be sent out.

Hot water bottles, ice bags, electric pad, and first aid equipment have been put into a lending library form at Residence Hall. When equipment is borrowed it must be signed out and returned in three days or else a fine must be paid.

Mrs. Neil Thompson, Mrs. Blanche Lawler, Miss Kathryn McKee and Mrs. Anna Wormsley check the supplies.

Peru State Teachers College has cancelled the Music Festival which was to have been held some time in April.

Track Meet Is Won, 74-62, by Bearcats

Victory Over Kirksville Climaxed by Winning Relay Squads.

For the first time this year fans caught a glimpse of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College track team. In a dual meet with Kirksville April 21, the Bearcats nosed out their rivals by the score of 74-62. The 12 point deficit does not reveal the bare facts, of the hotly contested battle.

The meet was initiated by the running of the mile. De Taparte of Kirksville breezed home the winner in 4:43. De Taparte, one of the three double winners, returned to grab first place in the half-mile at 2:05.4.

Dick Schoneman of Maryville leaped six feet to top all opposition in the high jump.

Horton of Kirksville monopolized the hurdles as the lanky blond sped over the timber to snatch first place in both events. Gates and Allen were the only Bearcats to show.

Al Wormsley showed little of his old form in the weights but managed to win second in the discus. The top weight man for Maryville threw the shot put 45' 3 1/4" to place first later in the meet.

Neil of Maryville proved to be the top man in the sprints by winning the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Neil also ran the anchor leg of the 880 yard relay team. Pat Zuchowski placed second in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

As the meet was coming to a conclusion the score was 64-62, Maryville. There were two relays left on the slate and Maryville had to conquer the Kirksville boys in at least one to win the meet. The Bearcats did better than this, however, and turned in a winning time in both relays, emerging victorious by the score of 74-62.

Summary of events:

440-yard dash: First, James, Maryville; 2nd, Waters, Maryville; 3rd, Dowell, Kirksville. Time, :33.1.

Mile run: First, DeLaporte, Kirksville; 2nd, Lockhardt, Kirksville; 3rd, Christine, Maryville. Time, 4:43.7.

Annual Track and Field Meet Is Saturday for District Schools

Host Institution Is Teachers College

Secondary Schools of Area Will Send Thin Clads Meeting in Classes.

'M' Club Will Handle Meet

Lettermen's Organization Will Assist Athletic Director Davis, Coach Milner and Staff.

High school athletes from Northwest Missouri will be visitors on the campus this Saturday for the annual district track and field meet sponsored by the Northwest Missouri State Teachers College. Athletic Chairman E. A. Davis has received entry blanks from schools throughout the area. The deadline for entries was last Friday.

There will be two classes in which the boys from the various high schools will compete. Any school with a total enrollment of more than 200 will be in class B, and any school whose total enrollment is less than 200 will be placed in class C. Competition is expected to be keen in both classes, since the weather has been exceptionally good for competition of the athletes.

Standing records are not expected to be lowered in this year's district meet. Reason for this has been expressed to be the not yet complete return of good coaching that was prevalent before the war. The best coaches were away in service, and it is thought that two or three years will be necessary to build up the good coaching background of the majority of the participants. Even with the slight handicap which is most important to making a foot farther or lowering a mark by one second the boys should provide sufficient thrill for everyone.

SPARE MOMENTS COUNT HERE

"Our purpose is to provide students with something they like to look at," said Mr. Price, "something that they find pleasant and relaxing, and incidentally to give them an informal course in art appreciation."

Three Join Kappa Omicron Phi

Three pledges, Willa Breckenridge, Nan George, and Thelma Palma became active to Kappa Omicron Phi, national professional home economics fraternity, on Tuesday, April 20. After the initiation, a buffet dinner was served in honor of the new members.
